Victorian Bushfires Class Action - Clarification

Recent media reports suggested that Singapore Power is a defendant in proceedings presently before the Supreme Court of Victoria, in relation to the Kilmore East fire. This is incorrect.

SP AusNet wishes to clarify that SP AusNet's electricity distribution operating company, SPI Electricity Pty Ltd, has been named as defendant in the Kilmore East proceedings. Court documents filed by the plaintiff's lawyers incorrectly referred to Singapore Power, instead of SP AusNet.

SP AusNet has extended its full support and assistance to the Bushfires Royal Commission and is currently awaiting its findings and recommendations, due to be published in its final report at the end of July.

As mentioned previously, SP AusNet will vigorously defend the claims. Otherwise, while court proceedings are in progress, it is not appropriate for further comment to be made in connection with the litigation process.
